28 Jan/Engine Failure from a Cargo Vessel/Italy

INCIDENT DATE	COUNTRY/REGION	LOCATION	SUB CATEGORIES	VESSEL DETAILS	ADDITIONAL DETAILS
2026.01.28	Italy	Coast of Sardinia	Engine Failure	Name - Blue Ocean A Type – Cargo Flag - Iran	Later in the night, the tug Vincenzino O. arrived and assisted the vessel to stabilise. The vessel is scheduled to be towed to the port of Sant'Antioco, escorted by a Coast Guard patrol vessel.

The livestock carrier Blue Ocean A with 33 crew members faced an engine failure on 28th Jan near Sardinia while traveling from Aqaba to Cartagena. Severe weather conditions caused it to drift near rocky coasts. The Carloforte Port Authority attempted to assist with patrol boats and the tug Portesvine but faced challenges due to the weather. After a failed anchoring attempt and several broken towing cables a larger tug was requested. The vessel eventually anchored 100 metres from the cliffs with crew members positioned on the upper deck as helicopters awaited for a possible evacuation.
